The following Communist Party members were reported to the Vienna Central Committee of the Communist Party of Austria (KPOe) by various provincial boards as having received special training:

1. Provincial Board in Styria:

Julius Kaiser, 89 Lagergasse, Graz, attended an evening course of instruction of the party on problems of Marxism and Leninism.

Rudolf Gall, Gartengasse, Graz, attended courses on organizational and administrative problems.

Johann Grabner, Schmiedgasse, Graz, attended courses on politics and organization. He is active as a functionary and will be nominated as candidate for section leader.

2. Provincial Board in Salzburg:

Gustav Haimann, Maxglaner Hauptstrasse, Salzburg, attended instruction courses on organization and problems relating to labor unions.

Ludwig Jauner, 4 Viertahlstrasse, Salzburg, now active as functionary in charge of a Sprengel (organizational unit of the Communist Party), attended the provincial party school and received instruction in Marxism, organization and questions relating to labor unions.

Martha Handel, 9 Aignerstrasse, Salzburg, attended a League of Democratic Women (Bund Demokratische Frauen) (BDF) course in Vienna. No details are available.

Sigmund Tritscher, 29 Mozartstrasse, Salzburg, is listed by the provincial board as a confidence man who is not a member of the Communist Party of Austria but is influential with the Americans and has numerous connections. Although not hostile to the party, he does not join the party because of his profession. He supplies the Salzburg Provincial Board with information on the Americans.

3. Provincial Board in the Tyrol:

Josef Reidl, 18 Lindengasse, Innsbruck, attended a course of instruction on Marxism and the Communist Manifesto.

Karl Schraenk, 19 Sillgasse, Innsbruck, a section leader, attended a course on agitation, propaganda and Marxist tactics conducted at the provincial party school.

Franz Steidl, living in the Kematen settlement near Innsbruck, attended evening courses on organization and party debates.
